

House Republican Press Release

January 23, 2008
Press Office: 860-240-8700

Rep. Frey and Sen. Freedman: Announce Office Hours

Legislators Invites Members of the Community to Visit, Discuss Local and State Issues

State Representative John H. Frey and State Senator Judith Freedman will be available for their constituents at the Ridgefield Parks and Recreation Center on February 2nd during office hours from 10:30 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. The Ridgefield Parks and Recreation Center is located at 195 Danbury Road.

All interested district residents are encouraged to attend.

“We will be available to answer any questions on what the Legislature did this year, as well as any other outstanding issues of concern to my constituents,” said Rep. Frey.

“We welcome the opportunity to answer questions and discuss state issues that are important to Connecticut residents, especially those who live in our part of the state,” said Senator Freedman.

If you are unable to attend the office hours and would like to discuss an issue of interest, please Sen. Freedman contact at her legislative office at 1-800-842-1421, or via e-mail at Judith.G.Freedman@cga.ct.gov or Rep. Frey at his capitol office (800)842-1423 or at home 431-6799, or write Legislative Office Building, Capitol Avenue, Hartford, CT 06106 or email John.Frey@housegop.ct.gov.